

Whitechapel Station closures between 13 and 21 February 2016

London Overground services at Whitechapel station will be suspended from Saturday 13 February until Sunday 21 February 2016 inclusive. London Underground services will also be suspended on Saturday 13 February and Sunday 14 February 2016. Please refer to www.tfl.gov.uk for details of alternative services. During this time Crossrail will carry out upgrade activities which, for safety reasons, must take place when the railway is not operational.

The programme of activities scheduled to take place between 01:00 on Saturday 13 February and 05:30 on Monday 22 February 2016 includes the following:

- Ground reinforcement (piling) activity in the vicinity of the London Overground and London Underground platforms
- Removing the staircases, walls and canopies in the vicinity of the Whitechapel Station and the former ticket hall
- Removing cables from the protection deck located over the London Overground, to the north of Durward Street
- Removing part of the old pedestrian footbridge at the eastern end of Whitechapel Station
- Station steelwork in the vicinity of London Overground
- Concrete pours in the vicinity of the station. There will be concrete lorries in Durward Street and activity on Whitechapel Road to support these concrete pours.

A crawler crane and other equipment will be positioned in Durward Street and also inside the site area within Kempton Court to assist with the upgrade activity during this period.

There will be a road closure and parking suspensions on the eastern side of Durward Street from Friday 12 February until Monday 22 February to allow heavy goods vehicles to arrive at and leave the work site. Vehicle access to Kempton Court car park will be maintained with traffic marshals directing vehicles into the car park when it is safe to do so.

During these works we will endeavour to minimise disruption to the local community. This will include using best practicable means to reduce any noise generated by our works.

Duration of work

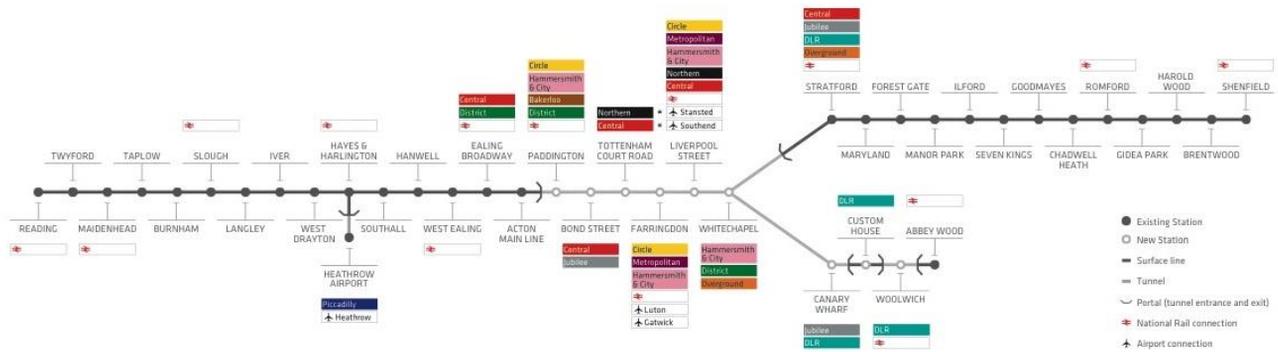

- London Overground closure from Saturday 13 February until Sunday 21 February 2016 inclusive
- London Underground closure on Saturday 13 February and Sunday 14 February 2016
- A programme of station upgrade activity from the evening of Friday 12 February until the early hours of Monday 22 February 2016

What to expect

- A crane within the site area in Kempton Court
- A road closure and parking suspensions on the eastern side of Durward Street

What we will do

- Monitor noise and dust and work in accordance with our consents as agreed with the London Borough of Tower Hamlets

About Crossrail

Crossrail is Europe’s largest construction project, delivering a new railway for London and the South East.

When the service opens Crossrail trains will travel from Reading and Heathrow in the west to Shenfield and Abbey Wood in the east via new twin tunnels under central London. It will link Heathrow Airport, the West End, the City of London and Canary Wharf.

Whitechapel and Stepney Green Community Liaison Panel

Crossrail runs a community liaison panel for each central London station to keep local community representatives informed of progress and plans. If you would like further information please contact
